Monday October 24th
Meeting begins at 7:00pm

Speaker

Karen Cunigan

Karen says—“Stitching is self-expression. Storytelling. Stitching is therapy. Repair in a world that’s fast and often unfair. Stitching is pleasant solitude or fine time with friends. Her work portrays what’s important to her -- family, faith, the beauty of creation, the courage of the human spirit, the joy of humor...”

Her lecture and live quilt show is titled All My Best Ideas

These 10 great tips (and many more), will change your quilting practice forever.

This is the lecture she presented at the International Quilt Festival, Long Beach ... And at the Visions Art Museum!

Presidents Message

Autumn greetings to the amazing quilters of NCQG,

It is with excitement and anticipation that we enter into the 2022-2023 year for North Cities Quilt Guild!

I am grateful for the New Slate of Officers that will be serving you this coming year: Co-Presidents, Kim Beckley and Debi Hanna; First Vice Presidents, Joanne Burkhart, Susan Lee and Trudy Teshima; Second Vice President-current programs, Tina Hawbaker; Second Vice President- future programs, Jill Patterson; Secretary, Dora Luz Arroyo and Mary Fitzgerald, Treasurer. They are amazing people and I know we will work together to keep our running smoothly. I thank them as well as the following members who agreed to continue serving the board in the remaining appointed positions: Lorretta Boumount, Past President and Tammy Messmann, Parliamentarian.

Also, I want to thank our newsletter editor Marcia Pittman for producing our amazing newsletter each month from her home state of North Carolina!

In addition, I want to thank Beck Sproal for doing such a great job at making our Opportunity Quilt fund raiser an amazing success! The winner of our “Betty’s Legacy” opportunity quilt is Sarah Sargent in Massachusetts.

Many of our members have already volunteered to lead the various committees and Projects that keep our Guild running smoothly. I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to each of you for agreeing to take on these tasks. We look forward to a great year ahead with all of your help! We are currently seeking volunteers to serve as our Opportunity Quilt Fund raiser for 2022-2023, Orange County Fair Representative, SCCQG representative. Please consider stepping forward to help us fill these much needed positions. Please let me know if you are able to help out. All help is appreciated.

As always, I am looking forward to the programs and workshops that we will be able to enjoy each month! Thank you, Amy Estrada, for choosing this year’s guest speakers. This month we will welcome Karen Cunagin. She will be speaking to us about “All My Best Ideas”. Her workshop will be “Yo-Yo Queen’s Embellishment Primer”. Tina Hawbaker will be taking sign-ups for this fabulous workshop. Please join us for an evening of fun, sharing and inspiration!

Happy Stitching,
Debi Hanna
